Excerpt of pertinent information :

Emil Vasiliu-Cluj has informed certain National-Peasant that the so-called Congress of Romanians Abroad plans to create a relief association, through which its sponsors plan to secure access to all funds available to the Romanian emigration. . . According to Vasiliu-Cluj, seventy persons will be selected, forming the type of "parliament" that General Nicolae Radescu has desired to organize. A new Romanian National Committee would be elected by the seventy delegates. Forty delegates will represent the political parties, twenty will represent the youth, the intellectuals and similar groups, and ten would be non-party personalities.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
